TUESDAY EVENING NOVEMBER 5.

For this section fair, cooler weather, westerly winds.

ELECTION RETURNS.—Fall returns of the election charged with being drunk and disorderly tions will be received at the Workingmen's Democratic Hoadquarters, on King, near Washington street, to-night. Special wires and operators have been put in the room by the Postal Telegraph Company. As the counting room of the GAZETTE office is not sufficiently large to accommodate the crowd who will want to hear the returns, all telegrams sent to this office will be read at the Working Club's rooms.

THE ELECTION to day has been conducted in a quiet and orderly manner, though much interest is being taken and crowds of voters have been at the polls all day. Both parties have worked hard to bring out a full vote and their efforts have been generally successful. The early part of the day was cloudy and raw but by noon the sun shone out brightly and the temperature became more agreeable. The saloons were nominally closed but all who wanted a drink had but little difficulty in securing it. The but little difficulty in securing it. The usual number of drunken men were seen on the street but they were generally in good humor and but few breaches of the peace occurred. One colored man was arrested early in the day and locked up for "repeating" and this stopped, in a measure, what is believed to have been a plan to increase the colored vote.

The vote being by ballot it is impossible to foretell the result, but the best posted say that the city and county will give a safe democratic majority. At 4 o'clock the vote

At 2 o'clock this afternoon 209 votes had been polled at Jefferson precinct, in Alexandria county. Only 32 more, 241, were polled at that precinct last fall. Mr. Hume was there and said he cinct last fall. Mr. Hume was there and said he believed he had carried the precinct, which usually gives a negro majority of two hundred. Reports from the two other precincts, Arlington and Washington, were to the effect that both would go for Hume by small majorities.

A gentleman who left Charlottesville at eleven o'clock to-day says that at all the stations between that place and this city the intelligence was to the effect that the democrats were making large gains in their last fall's vote DEMOCRATIC MEETING .- The democrats of this city closed the campaign last night with a grand mass meeting at the Opera House. The hall was crowded with the very bone and sinew of the community (in marked contrast with the audiences composing the republican meetings held in the same hall last week) and a number of ladies are detailed the occasion with their presence. graced the occasion with their presence. The meeting was presided over by Mayor Downham and on the stage were Senator Barbour, Messrs. M. B. Harlow, J. R. Caton, S. G. Brent, L. Marbury, J. G. Beckham and a number of other citizens.

Mr. John Goode was the first speaker and he delivered a masterly address. His ar-raignment of Gen. Mahone from the time he organized the Mozart Hall convention till he left his seat in the Senate was most severe. He showed how Gen. Mahone had been fal e to the people of Virginia and to her interests-sacrificing all that was held sacred in the old Commonwealth to attain his own selfish ends.

Mr. W. D. Byrum, of Indiana, was then introduced. He passed over State issues and spoke chiefly of the tariff. Of this subject he appeared to be a master, and presented it in new phases, making it plain to all that the protective tariff was not for the benefit of the laboring men, but instead a device to enrich the moneyed monopolists at the expense of the poor. He closed by telling the colored people that the boasted love of the republicans for them was a snare and that the only use the republicans had for them was to secure their votes. He said the democrats felt kindly towards the colored men, but warned them that if it ever came to an issue between the black and white races, the negro would have to go to

Mr. S. G. Brent then expressed the regrets of Mr. Frank Huma a his inability to be present, saying that he was then in the county working for the success of the State ticket. He then introduced Col. R. F. Beline, of Richmond' Col. B. was received ing how General Mahone had turned against the people of Virginia. His allusions to Capt. McKinney were very grace-

The speakers all paid tributes to the men on the democratic State ticket and to Mr. Frank Hume, predicting their election and urging their hearers to give them their sup-

FAIR -The fair and bazar of the ladies of St. Mary's Church for the benefit of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum opened in the new building on Duke street last night. The new hall is abundantly adapted for such a purpose and every advantage has been taken of it. The seven booths—The Sanctuary, Holy Family, Sacred Heart, Y. M. S. L., St. Vincent de Paul's, St. Joseph's and St. Mary's—are all prettily decorated, and the arrangements of the wares, consisting principally of fancy work, embroidery, painted and ornamental needlework and decorated furniture, is most creditable to the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum opened in decorated furniture, is most creditable to the ladies, who have vied with each other to make the handsomest and most attractive display. Among other articles displayed are portraits of Cardinal Gibbons, Bishops Keans and J nnings, and Archbishop Ryan, besides Fathers O'Kane, Keating and others. There is also a flower booth and a fountain and a soda fount as well, all combined presenting a most attractive and interesting with a reprimand.

Dannis Jenkins, colored, arrested by Officer Brenner for disorderly conduct, had his

W. T. Barnes, colored, arrested by Officer Bettis for illegally voting, was committed for future examination.

CASE DISMISSED.—An opinion was rendered by Chief Justice Fuller yesterday in the Supreme Court, dismissing with costs the appeal of the Ioland and Seaboard Coasting Company from a decision of the district supreme court in favor of Francis A. Tolson. This case was summarily dismissed by the court for the reason that the attorneys for the steamboat company had not complied with the requirements of a new rule of the court. The only course now rule of the court. The only course now open to the company is to make application for a rehearing, but the court is decidedly averse to reopening cases. Mr. Toison several years ago g.t his foot caught and mashed between two planks at Toison's wharf by the steamer John W. Thompson in them together as she made her jamming them together as she made her fanding there. The district court zave judgment for about $8,000 against the company, and it will be compelled to satisfy that

THE STEAMER CRYSTAL WAVE. - As Stated in the GAZETTE the wreck of the Crystal Wave, sunk off the Delaware capes on Tue-day last, has been found. It lies sunk en in 100 feet of water, seven miles south of the Flve Fathoms Bank Lightship. It will, it is feared, be impossible to recover her. Capt. Randall, it is said, paid $30,000 cash on account of the steamer before she left New York, the remaining $15,000 to be paid when she reached this city. He failed to incure her, taking the risk of her safe passage. The company from whom Capt. Randall purchased the steamer, however, inserted their $15,000 interest and thus saved

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The monthly meeting of R. E. LeeCamp, C.V. was held last night and the attendance was large. Three new members were elected and two appli cations for membership received. A hand-somely framed copy of Hon. Benjamin H. Hill's sketch of the "Character of General Robert E. Lee" was presented to the camp by Col. Arthur Herbert. After the transaction of some routine business, the camp was addressed by Col. Herbert, who gave a very entertaining account of the marches and camp life of his old regiment, the 17th Virginia. Resolutions in respect to the memory of the late G. Frank Kelly, a for mer member of the camp, were adopted.

DEATH OF A FORMER CITIZEN.-Intelligence was received here to day of the death, at his home in Baltimore, this morning, of Mr. William Arnold, formerly of this city. Mr. Arnold in years gone by was a merchant tailor in this city and was well-known throughout the community. He was formerly one of the city tax collectors and was DROWNED .- While the steam tug Spray, formerly of this port, was towing a small barge from Norfolk to Lambert's point yes terday the barge cap-ized and a colored man, who was on board, was drowned. A white man who was also on the barge narrowly escaped. The barge was laden with brick, cement and lumber belonging to Gec. V. D. Groner, all of which was lost.

COUNTY DEMOCRATS -The democra s of the county held a rousing meeting at Carne schoolhouse last night which was largely attended. A brass band furnished music for the occasion. Stirring speeches were made by Messrs. Frank Hume, J E. Clements and J. W. Holt.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

This is Guy Fawkes Day. Nothing has yet been heard of the missing Miss Belle Brown, who disappeared from with rounds of applause. He devoted his speech mainly to State issues and to showington yesterday to Howard C. Ball and Fannie F Francis, both of Fauquier county. The condition of Edmund C. Blunt, who was recently shot in Washington, continues to improve, and it is thought that he is now out of danger. Application for bail in the case of Frank Ward, charged with the murder of Maurice Adler in Washington some time since, not be heard until Tuesday of next week.

The meteorological summary at the Wash ington signal service station for Octobe shows that the total rainfall during the month was 4.48 inches, and that the average temperature was 51 degrees, the lowest since the year 1876

A buggy containing a lady and gentleman was overturned on the Leesburg pike yes terday evening near the Theological Sem -nary, but fortunately the occupants were not hurt. The horse attached to the buggy shied and the lady and gentleman were thrown down a deep, precipitous gulley. This accident should be a warning to the county authorities who should repair these dangerous places in the public roads.

John Potter and Henry Bryant, two drunken colored men fram Washington, created a disturb-ance at the Second ward polls this evening and were arrested not, however, till they had voted.

ATTENTION, REPUBLICANS!—The returns from the State will be received at the headquarters of the Third Ward White Republican League room, Queen street, between Washington and Columbus, to-night. 1t
